Alcohol Policy

Under directives from the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, all alcohol must be purchased and consumed within designated areas of Ford Field Park.

Reservation Policy for Fireworks – 8 a.m., 8 x 8 feet

Space may be saved on the Ford Field Hill after 8 a.m. Saturday and Sunday. Blankets must be 8 feet by 8 feet or less. Blankets must be removed after the fireworks each night. No stakes can be used.

No Smoking Policy

Smoking is prohibited in all tents and prohibited in areas in which food is prepared or consumed. Dearborn also bans smoking within 15 feet of a play structure.

Reservation policy for Main Stage

Chairs may be saved in front of the Main Stage after 5 p.m. A person must be present to save chairs. One person can reserve four chairs.

$10 Parking at Ford Field, $7 for second entry

Fee applies beginning at 11 a.m. each day (except for Special All-Stars). Handicapped spots available. Upon payment of $10, a coupon will be given for $7 parking for the second entry during the weekend.

Free Shuttle Service from Dearborn High (Outer Drive, North of Michigan)

6-11 p.m. Friday, and noon to 11:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Free parking. School buses, including handicapped-accessible ones, make continuous trips between the festival and the school parking lot. Buses will also stop near Monroe and Michigan Avenue for access to the Dearborn Historical Museum and downtown west Dearborn. Sponsored by LaFontaine Automotive Group and SMART.

Bike racks available; no bike riding on festival grounds

Bikes racks are near the tennis courts and at the top of the hill off Cherry Hill.
