Man rescued by Dearborn paramedics expresses gratitude for help

DEARBORN, Mich. –

A 67-year-old man whose life was saved in a dramatic way brought family members on April 19 to thank Dearborn paramedics from Fire Station No. 2, and made a donation to the Dearborn Firefighters Burn Drive in appreciation for their medical assistance. Raffaello Cipparrone was extensively treated by Dearborn paramedics on April 1 after collapsing in the parking lot of the Dearborn Country Club before being transported to Oakwood Hospital. He emerged from his ordeal with a permanent pacemaker but declared that he is fully recovered. Shown here are (from left) paramedic Dan Morse, Giulia Cipparrone, paramedic Mike Weinburger, Raffaello Cipparrone, paramedic Ted Darnall, Gabriel Cipparrone, paramedic Scott Miller and paramedic Aaron Mominee.
