City Beautiful Commission names 2006 Residential Standard of Excellence Award winners

DEARBORN, Mich. – The Dearborn City Beautiful Commission recently presented the city's 2006 Residential Standard of Excellence awards to homeowners judged to have maintained the appearance of their properties in an outstanding fashion.

The citations and awards were presented during a special ceremony held Wednesday, October 4, at Dearborn City Hall. Mayor Michael A. Guido thanked City Beautiful Commission members for their work in selecting the winners, and joined them in honoring the awardees.

"Dearborn has a reputation as a community that has clean, safe and beautiful neighborhoods," said Mayor Guido. "The people making it happen are the homeowners who invest their time and money in keeping their properties looking their best; and the City Beautiful Commissioners who work so hard to help us recognize their efforts. All of you make this a better City for all of us."
