City Council Meeting

9. After the Planning Commission meeting, the proposed rezoning will be reviewed by City Council who makes the final determination on the request. A rezoning typically requires two public meetings in front of City Council before it can be formally approved; however, City Council may hold additional hearings if it is considered necessary. The Committee of Whole meetings (which are held on Thursdays) set the agenda for the City Council meetings which are held on Tuesdays.

The City Council may by majority vote of its membership:

- a. Adopt the proposed rezoning amendment.

10. The Planning Division will email the applicant a letter detailing City Council's decision. If City Council approved the rezoning request, the letter will also include the effective date of the rezoning. An ordinance amendment is effective the day after publication in the newspaper which is approximately a week after the vote.

Amendment Considerations

The Planning Commission and City Council will review the rezoning request based on the following standards as outlined in the Section 32.06 (C3) of the City's Zoning Ordinance:

- a. Is the proposed amendment in accordance with the basic intent and purpose of the Zoning Ordinance?
- b. Does the proposed amendment further comprehensive planning goals and is it consistent with the Master Plan?
- c. Have conditions changed since the Zoning Ordinance was adopted, or was there a mistake in the Zoning Ordinance that justifies the amendment?
- d. Does the amendment correct an inequitable situation created by the Zoning Ordinance, rather than merely grant special privileges?
- e. Will the amendment result in unlawful exclusionary zoning?
- f. Will the amendment set an inappropriate precedent, resulting in the need to correct future planning mistakes?
- g. Is the proposed zoning consistent with the zoning classification of surrounding land?
- h. Could all requirements in the proposed zoning classification be complied with on the subject parcel?
